2. Terms of the Macromedia scholarship application requirements

All programmes at Macromedia University are subject to tuition fees. Programmes at Macromedia University are not state-subsidized and are therefore financed solely from tuition fees. Macromedia University awards partial scholarships only. The applicant must have applied and be eligible for a programme at Macromedia University. The applicant must prove to be eligible for either merit based or need based support.

In case of an application for a merit based scholarship, Macromedia University requires proof of outstanding academic performance at High School (B.A. programmes) or the B.A. degree (M.A. programmes).

In case of an application for a need based scholarship, Macromedia University requires written summary on the financial situation and background. Other proof may be handed in additionally, such as proof on need based state support, salary of applicant and/or parents etc. Please include information on what amount would be required to make funding possible, and keep in mind that Macromedia University cannot award full scholarships.

In both cases we require an additional motivational statement, describing personal and subject-related qualifications and including details on social activities & volunteering. This motivational statement should outline the willingness of the applicant to support Macromedia University at student events and represent the university as a student ambassador.

3. Other Scholarships

Please make sure that you check all sources of financial support if you need help with funding your degree. Many countries have scholarship programmes to support their citizens with studying abroad.
